UNIT

GREETINGS INTRODUCTIONS

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Greet people naturally at different times of the day.
- Introduce yourself without sounding like a robot.
- Understand why we avoid the word "Anda" (You).
- Understand the "Zero Copula" (No "to be").

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Selamat pagi	Good morning	Used until ~11:00 AM
Selamat siang	Good day	~11:00 AM to ~3:00 PM
Selamat sore	Good afternoon	~3:00 PM to Sunset
Selamat malam	Good evening	After sunset
Apa kabar?	How are you?	Lit: "What news?"
Baik	Good / Fine	Common answer.
Nama	Name
Saya	I / My	Safe for everyone.
Mas	You (Brother)	For young males / peers.
Mba	You (Sister)	For young females / peers.
Pak	You (Sir/Father)	For older men / respect.
Bu	You (Ma'am/Mother)	For older women / respect.
Siapa	Who
Makasih	Thanks	Casual version of "Terima kasih".

Pro Tip: In spoken Indonesian, we often drop the "Selamat" and just say "Pagi", "Siang", or "Malam". It's like saying "Morning!" instead of "Good Morning".

3. Grammar Focus

A. The "No Anda" Rule (Addressing People)

In textbooks, you learn Anda = You.

In real life, using Anda can sound cold, like a police interrogation.

Instead, Indonesians call people by titles based on age/gender, even strangers.

- Mas: Addressed to a male of similar age or younger (e.g., waiter, driver).
- Mba: Addressed to a female of similar age or younger.
- Pak: Older male / Respected figure.
- Bu: Older female / Respected figure.
- English: Who are you?
- Textbook: Siapa nama Anda? (Stiff)
- Natural: Siapa nama Mas? (Polite & Friendly to a male)

B. The "Zero Copula" (No "To Be")

Indonesian has no word for "am", "is", or "are".

- English: I am Budi.
- Indo: Saya Budi. (Lit: I Budi)
- English: She is Sarah.
- Indo: Dia Sarah.

4. Dialogue: Meeting a New Friend

Context: Budi (Male) meets Sarah (Female) at a co-working space in Bali. They appear to be similar ages.

Budi: Pagi, Mba.

Sarah: Pagi, Mas.

Budi: Apa kabar?

Sarah: Baik. Mas gimana? (How about you?)

Budi: Baik juga. Makasih.

Sarah: Namanya siapa, Mas?

Budi: Saya Budi. Mba siapa namanya?

Sarah: Saya Sarah.

Budi: Salam kenal, Sarah.

Audio Notes

(Ambient coffee shop noise)

1. Read the dialogue naturally (informal speed).
2. Note how they drop "Selamat".
3. Note the use of "Mas" and "Mba" instead of "Anda".

5. Cultural Note: "Mau ke mana?"

Often, instead of "How are you?", locals will greet you with:

"Mau ke mana?" (Where are you going?)

This is not them being nosey! It is just a friendly greeting, like "What's up?".

- Safe Answer: "Jalan-jalan saja" (Just walking around).

6. Exercises

G. Self-Check: Am I Ready?

Before moving to Unit 02, make sure you can:

- [] Greet someone at any time of day
 - [] Introduce yourself naturally (without "Anda")
 - [] Use the right title (Mas/Mba/Pak/Bu) for different people
 - [] Ask someone's name politely
 - [] Respond to "Apa kabar?" and "Mau ke mana?"
 - [] Understand why Indonesian has no "to be" verb

Answer Key - Unit 01

A1. Matching: 1-c, 2-a, 3-b, 4-e, 5-d

A2. Fill in the blank: 1. Pagi, 2. Sore, 3. Baik, 4. Siapa, 5. Malam

B1. Titles: 1. Mas, 2. Bu, 3. Pak, 4. Mba, 5. Pak

B2. Error Correction:

1. "Siapa nama Mas?" (Use title, not Anda)
2. "Saya Budi." (No "adalah" needed - Zero Copula)
3. "Selamat siang!" (2 PM is Siang, not Pagi)

B3. Zero Copula: 1. Sarah, 2. Ibu Wayan, 3. Pak Budi

C1. To Indonesian:

1. Selamat sore, Bu.
2. Siapa nama Pak/Bapak?
3. Salam kenal.

C2. To English:

1. Morning, (young man). How are you?
2. Good/Fine. Thanks.
3. I am Budi. What is your name, Miss?

D. Dialogue Comprehension:

1. A co-working space in Bali
2. Morning (they said "Pagi")
3. He didn't know her name yet; using titles is polite for strangers
4. "Nice to meet you" / "Greetings to know (you)"

NUMBERS MONEY

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Count from 1 to 1,000,000 (It's easier than you think!).
- Understand prices and handle the Indonesian Rupiah (IDR).
- Ask "How much is this?" naturally.
- Bargain politely in a market setting.

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Berapa?	How much / How many?
Harga	Price
Uang	Money
Mahal	Expensive
Murah	Cheap
Boleh	Can / Allowed	Key word for permission.
Kurang	Less / Minus	Used to ask for a discount.
Ini	This
Itu	That
Satu	One
Dua	Two
Tiga	Three
Empat	Four
Lima	Five
Enam	Six
Tujuh	Seven
Delapan	Eight

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Sembilan	Nine
Sepuluh	Ten	Prefix Se- means "One".
Ribu	Thousand
Juta	Million

Pro Tip: In spoken Indonesian, "Satu" is often shortened to "Se-" when attached to counters.

- Seribu = 1,000 (One Thousand)
- Sejuta = 1,000,000 (One Million)

3. Grammar Focus

A. The Number System (Logic > Memorization)

Indonesian numbers are very logical. Once you know 1-10, you can build the rest.

- 11-19 (Teen): Add -belas.
 - 11 = Sebelas (Special case: not "Satu belas")
 - 12 = Dua belas
 - 13 = Tiga belas
- 20-99 (Tens): Add puluh.
 - 20 = Dua puluh
 - 21 = Dua puluh satu
 - 50 = Lima puluh

- Large Numbers (Currency):

- ▶ 100 = Seratus (Se + Ratus)

- ▶ 1,000 = Seribu

- ▶ 10,000 = Sepuluh ribu

- ▶ 100,000 = Seratus ribu

- ▶ 1,500,000 = Satu juta lima ratus ribu (Often just called "Satu setengah juta" - 1.5 million)

B. Asking the Price

Don't say "Berapa harga ini?". It's grammatically correct but stiff.

Natural Ways to Ask:

1. "Ini berapa?" (This is how much?) - Most common.

2. "Berapa, Bu/Pak?" (How much, Ma'am/Sir?)

C. The Art of Bargaining ("Boleh Kurang?")

Bargaining is expected in traditional markets (Pasar), but NOT in supermarkets or malls with fixed prices (Harga Pas).

The Formula:

1. Ask price: "Ini berapa, Bu?"

2. Express shock (playfully): "Waduh, mahal banget!" (Oh my, so expensive!)

3. Ask for discount: "Boleh kurang, nggak?" (Can it be less?)

4. Suggest price: "Lima puluh ribu, boleh?"

4. Dialogue: At the Souvenir Market

Context: Sarah wants to buy a Sarong in Bali. She talks to an older female seller (Ibu).

Sarah: Pagi, Bu. Kain ini berapa?

Ibu: Pagi, cantik (beautiful). Itu seratus lima puluh ribu. (150,000)

Sarah: Wah, mahal banget, Bu!

Ibu: Bagus lho, kualitas ekspor.

Sarah: Boleh kurang, nggak?

Ibu: Boleh. Mau berapa?

Sarah: Tujuh puluh ribu, ya? (70,000)

Ibu: Waduh, belum dapat, Mba. (I can't do that yet). Seratus pas, deh. (100 flat/fixed).

Sarah: Delapan puluh ribu deh, Bu. Saya ambil dua.

Ibu: Ya sudah. Delapan puluh ribu. Silakan.

Sarah: Makasih, Bu.

<https://indonesianbasics.com/audio#unit-02>

Audio Notes

1. Note the tone. It is friendly, not aggressive.
2. "Wah" and "Waduh" are interjections of surprise.
3. "Deh" is a particle used to confirm or settle a deal.

5. Cultural Note: The Currency (IDR)

Indonesian prices look huge because of the zeros!

- ~ $1 USD = ± Rp 15,000 (fluctuates).
- ~ $10 USD = ± Rp 150,000.

The "K" Shortcut:

Locals and expats often chop off the last three zeros when talking.

- 50,000 = "Fifty K" or just "Lima puluh" (context implies thousands).
- If you see "50k" on a menu, it means 50,000 Rupiah.

UNIT

FOOD DINING

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Order food and drinks at a local Warung or restaurant.
- Understand basic menus (Goreng vs. Bakar).
- Ask for "Take away" vs. "Eat here".
- Handle the "Spicy" (Pedas) situation.

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Makan	To eat / Food
Minum	To drink / Drink
Nasi	Rice	The staple of life.
Ayam	Chicken
Ikan	Fish
Goreng	Fried	e.g., Nasi Goreng
Bakar	Grilled	e.g., Ayam Bakar
Pedas	Spicy
Manis	Sweet	Important for tea!
Air putih	Water	Lit: "White water"
Es	Ice
Mau	Want	Used to order.
Suka	Like
Enak	Delicious
Bon / Bill	The Bill

3. Grammar Focus

A. Ordering: "Saya Mau..." vs. "Minta..."

To order food, you can use two simple structures:

1. Saya mau... (I want...) - Direct & Common.
 - Saya mau Nasi Goreng. (I want Fried Rice.)
2. Minta... (Ask for/Request...) - Polite Request.
 - Minta air putih satu. (Request one water.)

B. Adjectives: The "Yang" Connector

Sometimes you need to be specific.

- Teh manis = Sweet tea (Noun + Adjective).
- Teh tawar = Plain tea (Unsweetened).

If you want to emphasize a preference, use Yang:

- Saya mau ayam yang bakar. (I want the chicken that is grilled, not fried).
- Saya mau yang tidak pedas. (I want the one that is not spicy).

C. Negation: "Tidak" vs. "Jangan"

- Tidak / Enggak: Simple "No".
 - Tidak pedas = Not spicy.
- Jangan: "Do not!" (Prohibition/Imperative).
 - Jangan pedas, ya! = Don't make it spicy, okay! (Stronger instruction to the cook).

4. Dialogue: Lunch at a Warung

Context: Sarah enters a simple roadside eatery (Warung).

Sarah: Siang, Bu. Buka? (Open?)

Ibu: Siang, Mba. Buka, silakan duduk. Mau pesan apa?

Sarah: Saya mau Nasi Goreng Ayam, satu.

Ibu: Pedas nggak?

Sarah: Jangan pedas, ya Bu. Dikit saja. (Don't make it spicy. Just a little).

Ibu: Oke. Minumnya apa?

Sarah: Es Teh Manis, satu.

Ibu: Makan sini atau bungkus? (Eat here or wrap/take-away?)

Sarah: Makan sini saja.

Ibu: Tunggu sebentar ya.

<https://indonesianbasics.com/audio#unit-03>

Audio Notes

1. "Bungkus" is the magic word for Take-Away.
2. "Pedas nggak?" is a quick way asking "Do you want it spicy?".

5. Cultural Note: Warung Etiquette & Hygiene

1. The Spoon & Fork: You hold the Spoon in your Right hand (to eat) and the Fork in your Left hand (to push food onto the spoon). You rarely put the fork in your mouth.
2. The "Kobokan": If you eat with your hands (common for Pecel Lele or Padang food), you will see a small bowl of water with a lime slice. Do not drink it! It is for washing your fingers before and after eating.
3. Right Hand Rule: Always eat with your right hand. The left hand is traditionally considered "unclean" (toilet functions).

UNIT

DIRECTIONS TRANSPORT

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Give directions to a taxi or Gojek/Grab driver.
- Understand basic locations (Left, Right, Straight).
- Ask "Where is...?"
- Navigate typical Indonesian landmarks.

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Di mana	Where (is)
Ke mana	Where (to)
Sini / Situ / Sana	Here / There / Over there	Distance increases.
Kiri	Left
Kanan	Right
Lurus	Straight
Jalan	Street / Walk / Go	Jalan-jalan = Walking around.
Stop / Berhenti	Stop	"Stop" is universally understood.
Depan	Front
Belakang	Back / Behind
Dekat	Near
Jauh	Far
Belok	Turn
Mobil	Car
Motor	Motorcycle

3. Grammar Focus

A. Prepositions: Di, Ke, Dari

These are the big three for direction.

- Di = At / In (Location). Di hotel.
- Ke = To (Movement). Ke pasar.
- Dari = From (Origin). Dari bandara.

B. Asking "Where is...?"

Structure: Di mana [Place]?

- Di mana toilet? (Where is the toilet?)
- Di mana Pantai Kuta? (Where is Kuta Beach?)

C. Giving Instructions (Imperatives)

To tell a driver what to do, just use the verb + direction.

- Belok kiri = Turn left.
- Lurus terus = Go straight continuously.
- Stop di sini = Stop here.
- Stop di depan = Stop at the front.

4. Dialogue: In a Taxi / Grab Car

Context: Budi is taking a Grab Car to his hotel. The driver confirms the location.

Driver: Siang, Pak. Sesuai aplikasi ya? (Good day. According to app?)

Budi: Ya, Pak. Ke Hotel Santika.

Driver: Lewat mana, Pak? (Which way?)

Budi: Ikut Google Maps saja, Pak.

(Some time later)

Budi: Pak, nanti belok kanan di depan ya.

Driver: Oke, siap.

Budi: Masuk gang ini, lalu lurus terus.

Driver: Yang pagar hitam itu?

Budi: Ya, benar. Stop di kiri, Pak.

Driver: Oke. Sampai, Pak.

Audio Notes

1. "Sesuai aplikasi" is the #1 phrase you will hear from Grab/Gojek drivers. It confirms you don't need to explain the destination if it's already set.
2. "Gang" (pronounced 'Gung') is a small alleyway, very common in Bali and Java.

5. Cultural Note: Gojek & Grab (The Super Apps)

In Indonesia, you don't hail taxis on the street much anymore. You use apps like Gojek or Grab.

- Gojek/GrabBike: Motorcycle taxi (Ojek). Fastest way to beat traffic (Macet). They provide a helmet.
- Gocar/GrabCar: Private car.
- Gofood: Food delivery (Life saver!).

Safety Tip: If you take a motorcycle taxi (Ojek), always wear the helmet (Helm) properly.

UNIT

TIME ROUTINE

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Ask and tell the time.
- Know the days of the week.
- Describe your daily routine.
- Use time markers like "Tomorrow", "Yesterday", and "Now".

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Jam	Hour / Clock	Jam berapa? = What time?
Menit	Minute
Sekarang	Now
Besok	Tomorrow
Kemarin	Yesterday
Hari ini	Today
Pagi	Morning
Siang	Day/Noon
Sore	Afternoon
Malam	Night
Bangun	Wake up
Tidur	Sleep
Mandi	Shower
Kerja	Work
Pulang	Go home
Buka	Open
Tutup	Closed

Days of the Week:

- Senin (Mon), Selasa (Tue), Rabu (Wed), Kamis (Thu), Jumat (Fri), Sabtu (Sat), Minggu (Sun).

3. Grammar Focus

A. Telling Time

Structure: Jam [Hour] + [Minute]

- 08:00 = Jam delapan.
- 09:30 = Jam sembilan (lewat) tiga puluh.
- Casual: Jam setengah sepuluh (Half to ten / 9:30).

Note: Indonesians often use the 24-hour clock in writing (20:00) but spoken 12-hour format with "Malam/Pagi" clarification.

- Jam 8 malam = 8 PM.

B. Time Markers (Placement)

Time markers usually go at the beginning or end of a sentence.

- Besok saya ke Bali. (Tomorrow I go to Bali).
- Saya ke Bali besok. (I go to Bali tomorrow).

C. "Sudah" vs "Belum" (Quick Preview)

When talking about routine, you might be asked: "Have you eaten?"

- Sudah: Already / Yes.
- Belum: Not yet. (Never say "Tidak" for "Not yet"!)

4. Dialogue: Making Plans

Context: Sarah asks Budi about his schedule for the weekend.

Sarah: Budi, hari Sabtu sibuk nggak? (Busy on Saturday?)

Budi: Nggak terlalu. Kenapa?

Sarah: Kita mau ke pantai. Mau ikut?

Budi: Boleh. Jam berapa berangkat?

Sarah: Jam delapan pagi.

Budi: Waduh, pagi banget! Saya baru bangun jam sembilan.

Sarah: Ya ampun, kebo banget! (Cow/Lazy!). Ya sudah, jam sepuluh ya?

Budi: Oke, jam sepuluh bisa. Sampai ketemu besok.

Listen Online

Scan to hear native pronunciation:

<https://indonesianbasics.com/audio#unit-05>

Audio Notes

1. "Kebo" (Buffalo/Cow) is mild slang for someone who sleeps a lot or is lazy. Friendly banter.
2. Note the negotiation of time.

5. Cultural Note: "Jam Karet" (Rubber Time)

Indonesians are famous for Jam Karet. Time is flexible.

- If a party starts at 7 PM, people might arrive at 8 PM.
- If a meeting is at 9 AM, 9:15 AM is often acceptable.
- Exception: Flights and Trains are on time! Don't use Jam Karet there.

6. Exercises

UNIT

FAMILY POSSESSION

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Talk about your family.
- Use the verb "Punya" (To Have).
- Use possessive suffixes (-ku, -mu, -nya).
- Ask "Do you have...?"

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Keluarga	Family
Orang tua	Parents	Lit: "Old People"
Ayah / Bapak	Father
Ibu / Mama	Mother
Anak	Child
Kakak	Older Sibling	Gender neutral.
Adik	Younger Sibling	Gender neutral.
Suami	Husband
Istri	Wife
Teman	Friend
Pacar	Boyfriend/Girlfriend
Punya	Have / Own
Ada	There is / exist	Often confused with Punya.
Menikah	Married

3. Grammar Focus

A. To Have: "Punya"

Structure: Subject + Punya + Object

- Saya punya anjing. (I have a dog.)
- Budi punya mobil baru. (Budi has a new car.)

Negation:

- Saya tidak punya uang. (I don't have money).

B. Possessive Suffixes (-ku, -mu, -nya)

Instead of "My book", Indonesian often attaches the pronoun to the noun.

1. Saya → -ku (My)
 - Rumahku = My house.
2. Kamu → -mu (Your - informal)
 - Namamu = Your name.
3. Dia → -nya (His/Her/Its)
 - Rumahnya = His/Her house.

Formal Possession:

For formal situations (using titles), place the title after the noun.

- Nama Anda → Nama Bapak / Nama Ibu.
- Rumah Pak Budi (Mr. Budi's house).

4. Dialogue: Showing Photos

Context: Sarah shows a photo on her phone to Ibu Wayan.

Ibu Wayan: Ini siapa, Mba Sarah?

Sarah: Ini adikku, namanya Tom.

Ibu Wayan: Ganteng ya (Handsome). Dia punya pacar?

Sarah: Sudah. Ini pacarnya, Lisa.

Ibu Wayan: Wah, cantik. Kalau ini?

Sarah: Ini orang tua saya. Ayah dan Ibu.

Ibu Wayan: Mba Sarah punya kakak?

Sarah: Tidak punya. Saya anak tunggal (only child).

Listen Online

Scan to hear native pronunciation:

<https://indonesianbasics.com/audio#unit-06>

Audio Notes

1. Notice the mix of "-ku" (casual/intimate) and "Saya" (neutral).
2. "Ganteng" is for men, "Cantik" is for women.

5. Cultural Note: Family Status

In Indonesia, family is everything. People will often ask you very personal questions early on:

- "Sudah nikah?" (Are you married?)
- "Punya anak?" (Do you have kids?)

Don't be offended! They are trying to "place" you in the social structure.

- If Single: Use "Belum" (Not yet) instead of "No". It's more polite/optimistic.

6. Exercises

B. "Yang" (The One That Is...)

Yang is a bridge word. It adds emphasis or distinction.

- Saya mau teh. (I want tea - general).
- Saya mau teh yang manis. (I want the tea that is sweet).

C. Intensifiers: "Sangat" vs "Banget"

- Sangat: Formal, goes before adjective.
 - Bali sangat indah.
- Banget: Casual, goes after adjective.
 - Bali indah banget! (Bali is so beautiful!)

4. Dialogue: Complaining about the Weather

Context: Budi and Sarah are walking outside in Jakarta.

Sarah: Aduh, hari ini panas banget ya!

Budi: Iya, gila (crazy). Matahari kuat sekali.

Sarah: Kita cari tempat yang dingin yuk. Masuk mall?

Budi: Boleh. Mall Grand Indonesia dekat dari sini.

Sarah: Jauh nggak kalau jalan kaki?

Budi: Lumayan (So-so). Tapi capek. Naik Gojek saja?

Sarah: Ide bagus.

UNIT

PAST FUTURE

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Talk about the past (Simple).
- Talk about the future (Plans).
- Understand "Aspect" markers (Sudah, Belum, Sedang, Akan).
- Use "Pernah" for life experiences.

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Sudah	Already / Done	Past marker.
Belum	Not yet	Negation of Sudah .
Akan	Will	Future marker (Formal).
Mau	Want / Will	Future marker (Casual).
Sedang / Lagi	Currently / -ing	Continuous marker.
Pernah	Ever	Have you ever...?
Tadi	Just now / Earlier	Tadi pagi = Earlier this morning.
Nanti	Later
Baru saja	Just (very recently)

3. Grammar Focus

A. The Timeline Markers

Indonesian verbs DO NOT change form (No "go" → "went"). You just add a marker word before the verb.

- Past: Saya sudah makan. (I have eaten / I ate).
- Present: Saya sedang makan. (I am eating).
- Future: Saya akan makan. (I will eat).

B. "Sudah" vs "Pernah"

- Sudah: Completed action recently.
 - Sudah mandi? (Have you showered?)
- Pernah: Experience at any time in life.
 - Pernah ke Bali? (Have you ever been to Bali?)
 - Belum pernah. (Never).

C. Casual Future: "Mau"

In conversation, Mau (want) is often used for "Will/Gonna".

- Saya mau ke mall. (I'm going to the mall).

4. Dialogue: discussing Travel History

Context: Budi asks Sarah about her travels in Indonesia.

Budi: Sarah, kamu sudah berapa lama di Indonesia?

Sarah: Sudah dua minggu.

Budi: Kamu pernah ke Jogja?

Sarah: Belum pernah. Tapi saya mau ke sana minggu depan.

Budi: Wah, asik. Jogja bagus banget.

Sarah: Kamu sudah pernah ke Borobudur?

Budi: Sudah sering (Often). Rumah nenek saya di sana.

Sarah: Nanti saya minta tips ya!

Listen Online

Scan to hear native pronunciation:

<https://indonesianbasics.com/audio#unit-09>

Audio Notes

1. Note how "Belum" stands alone as "No" (for "have you ever/already").
2. "Asik" (or Asyik) means Cool/Fun.

5. Cultural Note: "Belum" is polite

If you are single and someone asks "Sudah menikah?" (Married?), always answer "Belum" (Not yet), even if you never plan to marry.

Saying "Tidak" (No) to marriage sounds too final and can be confusing culturally. "Belum" implies hope and is softer.

6. Exercises

A. Vocabulary Drill

A1. Match the Indonesian to English:

INDONESIAN		ENGLISH
1.	Sudah	—	a. Will
2.	Belum	—	b. Already

4. Tomorrow: _____

5. Right now: _____

B. Grammar Practice

B1. Choose the correct marker (Sudah / Sedang / Akan):

1. Don't disturb him, he is ___ sleeping. (currently)
2. I ___ visited Bali last year. (completed)
3. We ___ go to Jakarta tomorrow. (future)
4. Have you ___ eaten? (completed?)
5. I ___ watching TV now. (currently)

B2. Use "Sudah" or "Pernah" correctly:

1. (Have you showered today?) → ___ mandi?
2. (Have you ever been to Bali?) → ___ ke Bali?
3. (Have you eaten?) → ___ makan?
4. (I have never tried durian) → Saya belum ___ coba durian.

B3. Error Correction - Find and fix the mistake:

UNIT

SOCIAL ETIQUETTE

1. Learning Objectives

By the end of this unit, you will be able to:

- Be super polite in Indonesian.
- Apologize correctly (Maaf vs Permisi).
- Use "Silakan" (Please go ahead).
- Understand basic social taboos.

2. Vocabulary

INDONESIAN	ENGLISH	NOTES
Maaf	Sorry	For mistakes.
Permisi	Excuse me	For passing by / getting attention.
Silakan	Please (go ahead)	Offering something.
Tolong	Please (help)	Asking for something.
Boleh	May I?	Asking permission.
Terima kasih	Thank you
Sama-sama	You're welcome
Kembali	You're welcome	Short for "Terima kasih kembali".
Tidak apa-apa	It's okay / No problem	Common response to "Maaf".
Hati-hati	Be careful / Safe trip
Santai	Relax / Chill

3. Grammar Focus

A. The Three "Pleases"

English has "Please". Indonesian has three, depending on context:

1. Tolong: When asking for help/items.
 - ▶ Tolong ambikan air. (Please get water).

2. Silakan: When offering something.

- Silakan duduk. (Please sit down).
- Silakan masuk. (Please come in).

3. Mohon: Very formal request (Official announcements).

- Mohon antri. (Please queue).

B. "Maaf" vs "Permisi"

- Maaf: Use when you made a mistake, bumped into someone, or are late.
- Permisi: Use when passing in front of someone, entering a room, or asking a stranger a question.
 - Permisi, Pak. Toilet di mana?

4. Dialogue: Visiting a Balinese Home

Context: Sarah is invited to Ibu Wayan's house.

Sarah: (Knocking) Permisi... Selamat sore.

Ibu Wayan: Eh, Mba Sarah. Silakan masuk.

Sarah: Terima kasih, Bu. Maaf saya terlambat sedikit. Macet.

Ibu Wayan: Tidak apa-apa, santai saja. Silakan duduk.

Sarah: Wah, rumahnya bagus sekali.

Ibu Wayan: Biasa saja (Just ordinary/humble). Silakan diminum tehnya.

Sarah: Terima kasih, Bu.

Audio Notes

- 1. Note the repeated use of "Silakan" by the host.
- 2. "Biasa saja" is a humble response to a compliment. Indonesians rarely agree with compliments directly (that would be arrogant).

5. Cultural Note: Taboos & Body Language

- 1. Touching Heads: The head is sacred. Never pat an adult or child on the head.
- 2. Pointing: Don't point with your index finger. It's rude. Use your thumb (right hand) or an open hand.
- 3. Feet: Feet are dirty. Do not put feet on tables. Remove shoes before entering a home.
- 4. Hands on Hips: Standing with hands on hips (Akimbo) signifies anger or defiance (like a Wayang character ready to fight). Avoid it when talking to police or elders!
